ANNA • DANIELSON

FAMILIES • YOUTH • COMMUNITY • DESIGN

San Francisco, CA
annajhoop@gmail.com
www.annadanielson.site
linkedin.com/in/anna-danielson

PROFILE

San Francisco public school parent and community organizer with more than ten years working with kids and families: leading groups, coordinating volunteers, and teaching parents. Committed to racial justice and educational equity. Working toward a teaching credential and a master's in education.

SKILLS

Working with kids
Small-group facilitation, SEL, positive behavior support, supporting neurodivergent kids

Families and community
Family engagement, volunteer coordination, parent education, resource navigation

Research and communication
Interviews and surveys, plain-language data reports, grant writing, print and web design

Tools
Google Workspace, MS Office, Adobe CC, Figma, HTML, CSS

EDUCATION

City College of San Francisco
2026 to Present
Child development, sociology, and Spanish. Research: interviews, an original survey, and a neighborhood field study.

BS, Communication Design
University of Cincinnati, DAAP, 2014
Teaching Assistant: led critiques, gave feedback, graded, and taught coding and design principles.

LANGUAGE EXPERIENCE

English (native)

Spanish (beginner, studying at CCSF)

Japanese (beginner, two years of university study)

FAMILY, YOUTH, AND COMMUNITY EXPERIENCE

PTA, School Site Council, and Mutual Aid Organizer — 2021 to Present · 400+ hrs
Monroe Elementary (SFUSD), a multilingual school with Spanish immersion, Chinese bilingual, and English Language Development programs

- PTA Historian (2026–27) and second term on the School Site Council; report school data to families in plain language and create translated materials with the school's Spanish and Cantonese family liaisons.
- With the Community Schools Coordinator, organized food drives during school breaks and a coat drive; helped run a free clothing rack.
- Organized families during the 2026 teachers' strike, including childcare rotations; coordinated neighbors for before- and after-school watches to protect immigrant families.
- Track turnout with sign-ups and surveys and plan more interactive meetings; completed immigrant rapid response trainings and handed out know-your-rights red cards.
- Write grants; help families one-on-one with school paperwork and bring their concerns to the principal.

Founding Member and Co-Facilitator — 2015 to Present · 1,200+ hrs
Wild Roots Community and Forest School (nature play group and co-op preschool)

- Co-facilitate weekly outdoor meetups for kids ages 6 months to 12 and their families.
- Support neurodivergent kids in hard moments with co-regulation and active listening.
- Wrote community standards with families, grounded in SEL and social justice. Helped start a parent co-op forest preschool; hired the teacher and co-designed its curriculum.

Childcare Provider and Family Workshop Leader — 2018 to Present
Self-employed

- Cared for children ages 2 to 10 in small groups: routines, reading, homework help, nature play, and outings; helped kids work through conflict and manage big feelings.
- Lead about ten hands-on parent and kid workshops a year on plant identification, nature walks, and seasonal foods and health.

Certified Babywearing Educator and Chapter President — 2016 to 2021 · 200 hrs
Babywearing International of San Francisco

- Taught safe babywearing to hundreds of families and led the chapter for five years; completed 50+ hours of facilitation training rooted in social justice and accessibility.

Food Access Volunteer — 2018 to Present

- Excelsior Community Food Pantry and SF-Marin Food Bank.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Designer, Freelance and Agency — 2010 to Present

- Web, print, and campaign design for P&G brands, Maybelline, Cincinnati Children's Hospital, startups, and community groups; user research, surveys, and interviews; managed clients, timelines, and multiple projects at once.

Community Herbalist and Health Educator, Self-employed — 2021 to Present

- Client consultations and community workshops on plants, seasonal foods, and everyday wellness; confidential client records.